

Sandefur Wetlands Pavilion

Herrick Archives Building PH 215

A. IDENTIFICATION & LOCATION

1 . Name

1.1 The structure was officially named for by the Board of Trustees on March 5, 1999, for John and Tana Sandefur for their contribution to erect the pavilion.

2. Location

2.1 Located at 352 W. Dodridge Road.

2.2 Located on the 30 acre Wetland Research Park.

3. General Description

3.1 Type of construction:

Wood frame wood skin.

3.2 No. of stories:

Two.

3.3 Gross floor area of 81,068 sq. ft.

3.4 The building serves as a visitor center and an ecosystem viewing area.

B. SIGNIFICANT DATES

1. The design development documents were approved on January 16, 2001.
2. Construction document approval was on February 28, 2001.
3. Construction began on April 10, 2002.
4. Completion

C. MISCELLANEOUS

1. The project creates a wetlands research and education facility to serve as a catalyst for Ohio to provide national leadership in wetland ecology and management, wetland and river restoration, and eco-technology.

D. PLANNING AND CONSTRUCTION

1. University associates who worked on the project include:

Project Captain: Miller, Ruth

Project Planner: Pensyl, Anne

Project Assistant: Cogley, Karen

2. Architect: NBBJ, Inc.

3. On                      the Board of Trustees awarded contracts to the following contractors:

General: Righter Construction Services Inc.

Plumbing: Capital City Mechanical

HVAC: Martina Metal Contracting Co., Inc.

Electric: Buckeye Electric Co.

E. COST

1. The budget for the project was $2,024,798.61.

F. PHOTOGRAPHS

1. In Photoarchives:
2. Other: